COMPLETE REHEARSALS FOR BIG CHANUKKAH FESTIVAL

Y. M. H. A. Will Stage Unique Minuture Pageant To-Night at Masonic Temple.

Final rehearsals were held yesterday for the Chanukkah festival that will be given to-night at the Masonic Temple under the auspices of the Young Men's Hebrew Association. The big features of the occasion will be a miniature pageant portraying the ancient candle-lighting ceremony which is the characteristic rite of the Chanukkah observance. A specially trained chorus of sixty-four children will take part in this spectacle.

The festival to-night will mark the first public appearance of the Young Men's Hebrew Association orchestra, an aggregation of ten pieces. The orchestra, which was formally recognized by the board of directors last week as one of the subordinate bodies of the association, has received special training under professional direction. Besides the features noted, there will be a short talk by Superintendent Benedict of the association, and a solo by Miss Ida Clarke. Later in the evening there will be dancing and refreshments.

Arrangements for to-night's festival are under the direction of a general committee, composed of Louis Rosenberg (chairman), Jacob Lovenstein, Dr. Harry Bear, Benjamin Lovenstein, Morris Greenspan, George Benedict, Henry Erieh, Louis London, Isaac Sonnenberg, Dr. Lazarus Karp and Alfred E. Hirschberg and Misses Mattie Sharpe, Emma Forman and Henrietta Helen Shapiro.

Fined for Shooting Pistol.
John C. Reil, colored, was yesterday fined $25 and costs in the Police Court on a charge of shooting a pistol at Mattie Jones.

HOTEL MEN OF TWO STATES ARE IN SESSION HERE

Visitors Entertained at Series of Luncheons and Dinners at Local Hotels.

With delegates representing practically all of the leading hotels of Virginia and North Carolina attending, the sixth annual convention of the Southern Hotel Men's Association opened yesterday morning in the auditorium of Hotel Richmond. Mayor George Albini made the address of welcome. Brief speeches were made by several of the delegates, and the annual reports of the officers of the association were submitted, showing that the organization is in prosperous condition.

At noon the convention adjourned, and a luncheon was served to the delegates at the Jefferson Hotel. There was a session of "shop talk" after the luncheon, and at 6:30 o'clock last night the delegates were entertained at a dinner and excursions about the city. The entertainment program.

Business sessions of the convention will be held this morning at Hotel Richmond, and luncheon will be served for the delegates at that hotel. This afternoon the delegates will be entertained on a tour of the city and suburbs. This evening at 6:30 o'clock the delegates will be served dinner at Hotel Richmond. Officers to serve the association during the ensuing year will be elected at to-day's session and the next place of meeting will be selected.

Six Months for Clothes Theft.
Robert Snowden, colored, arrested by Patrolman Duffy on a charge of stealing a $16 suit of clothes from Benjamin Harvey, was yesterday convicted in the Police Court and sentenced to jail for six months.

D. BUCHANAN & SON LOSE SUIT AGAINST C. B. NEWTON

Jury Finds for Defendant in Case
Involving Unexpired Five-Year Lease.

FAILURE TO FURNISH HEAT

Jury Holds This Sufficient Justification for Tenant to Move Elsewhere
Before Lease Had Expired—Motion to Set Aside Verdict Continued.

Concluding a trial that lasted two days, a jury in the Law and Equity Court yesterday returned a verdict for the defendant in the suit of D. Buchanan & Son against C. B. Newton for a year's rent of the premises over the store at Third and Broad Streets. Under the firm name of C. B. Newton, a millinery establishment was formerly conducted at this location by Mrs. Carrie B. Orange.

Mrs. Orange, it appears, signed a five-year lease for the second floor of the building owned by the complainant, agreeing to pay a rental of $720 a year. After occupying the premises for about three years she moved her business to another store. D. Buchanan & Son attached the defendant's stock of goods for $720, the amount of one year's rent.

PREMIERES SATISFACTORILY

On the stand the defendant told the court that her contract with the complainant obligated him to light and heat the premises. Despite this agreement, she testified, the complainant failed to heat the premises properly—a failing which, she said, was complained of by her customers, and resulted in the loss of considerable business.

Counsel for the defendant, who was represented by James G. B. Garland and T. A. Williams, contended that the complainant had failed to live up to his contract, and that the defendant was, therefore, under no obligation to occupy the premises. The jury sustained this view and returned a verdict for the defendant.

Attorneys for D. Buchanan & Son made a motion for a new trial, and Judge Crump fixed 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon for argument on the motion. The jury's verdict in her favor was received by Mrs. Orange with an outburst of tears, and it was several minutes before she could be quieted by friends who were present with her in the courtroom.

REQUISITION ISSUED

Former Artilleryman to Be Brought Back From Texas for Trial.

Manuel Valdez, a Mexican, formerly an enlisted man stationed with a company of Coast Artillery at Fort Monroe, is in jail in El Paso, Texas, held as a fugitive from justice from Virginia. Valdez is charged with betraying the affections of a young girl in Hampton. The girl is his accuser. On a warrant sworn out by her, the Mexican was indicted in Elizabeth City County.

A requisition was drawn yesterday at the direction of the Governor by Secretary of the Commonwealth B. O. James on Governor O. B. Colquitt, of Texas, demanding the surrender of the fugitive. It is alleged that the offense was committed while Valdez was an artilleryman at Fort Monroe. His term of enlistment expired and he fled from the State. It is presumed he was re-enlisted in Mexico when apprehended in El Paso, just across the short bridge spanning the Rio Grande, opposite Juarez.

Favor Early Meeting.
Speaker of the House Edwin P. Cox said yesterday that indications are favorable to assembling the Finance Committee of the General Assembly here January 6, a week before the special session of the Legislature begins, to consider financial matters relating to new tax laws. The speaker has heard from fifty-two members. Forty-eight favor the early meeting of the committee. It was reported that the members respond Speaker Cox will issue a call for the meeting.
